SEER

1951

THE SEER

NINETEEN FIFTY-ONE

FOREWORD

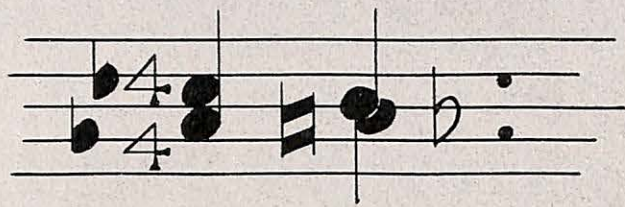

As the sands of life drift slowly through the hour glass of time, may you look back to the wonderful days pictured in this book. If the SEER can aid you in recalling the Christian atmosphere of Clarke, of bringing back a breath of the fellowship we had as students of the Master, then shall we feel that our goal has been achieved.

DEDICATION

It is with both love and pride that we dedicate the 1951 SEER to a person who has been a never-ending source of friendliness, inspiration, and understanding through all our college days—a person who loves the students as they love her—our own "MOM", Mrs. Frances W. Townsend.

CLARKE COLLEGE STUDENTS

ACTIVITIES

B. S. U. COUNCIL

The Baptist Student Union is the voluntary religious activity of Baptist students of Clarke Memorial College. It is a church centered organization. Thus, it is the connecting link between the campus and the local church. Membership in the local Baptist Church, its Sunday School or Training Union, or any B. S. U. unit organization on the campus means membership in the Baptist Student Union. The Baptist Student Union co-ordinates the religious activities on the campus and leads the students into the local church. Its chief purposes are: (1) to win to Christ those students who come to the campus unsaved, (2) to conserve prior training which has been done by Christian homes and local churches, (3) to sponsor a sane social life with a definite religious emphasis, (4) to supply activities in which spiritual growth may be assured, and (5) to produce graduates who are thoroughly indoctrinated with and acquainted with Southern Baptist doctrines, methods, terms, plans, organizations, and agencies.

In addition to occasional conferences, special weeks of emphasis and social gatherings the B.S.U. promotes morning watch and noon-day singspiration, two widely attended twenty minute devotional periods each school day. It is under the direction of Rev. Louie Farmer, Jr., Student Secretary, and correlated through the executive council of the B.S.U. Most of the work is done through unit organizations.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Clarke Memorial College Ministerial Association ranks among the oldest and strongest campus organizations. Its membership is made up of ministerial students. Meetings are held each Tuesday evening. One meeting each month is combined with the Newton County Pastor's Conference. The Ministerial Association seeks to foster a cordial spirit of fellowship among the student preachers. It promotes considerable practical religious activity.

The officers are: Ed Rice, President; Russell Rogers, Vice-President; Harold Ishee, Secretary-Treasurer; Frank Morgan, Reporter; E. R. Bryan, Social Chairman; Alvin Tucker, Extension Chairman; J. B. Costilow, Program Chairman; George Lassett, Choirster; Dr. E. R. Pinson, Faculty Advisor; L. M. Lanier, Critic.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

This organization includes both men and women students who are interested in becoming educational directors, educational secretaries, church secretaries, or church music directors. It meets each Tuesday evening. Its main purpose is to acquaint the members with the field of religious education. It seeks from time to time to give its members some practical activities in the field of religious education.

The officers are: George Dukes, President; Herman May, Vice-President; Jane Kelly, Secretary-Treasurer; Martha Martin, Social Chairman; Annie Embry, Program Chairman.

YOUNG WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

The Y.W.A. is a vital part of the religious and social life of the campus. Its membership is made of the unmarried women students. It meets each Tuesday evening for programs taken directly from materials printed for that purpose by the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The officers are: Irene Landry, President; Ruby Joyce Dukes, Vice-President; Aliece Walley, Secretary; Mary Lou Smith, Program Chairman; Eugenia Jackson, Music Chairman; Muhyene Green, Community Missions Chairman; Evelyn Berestoff, Social Chairman; Polly Thompson, Publicity Chairman; Doris Crane, Literature Chairman; Valdez Whitlock, Stewardship Chairman; Dot Courtney & Eloise Walley, Circle Chairmen.

BEACON MISSION BAND

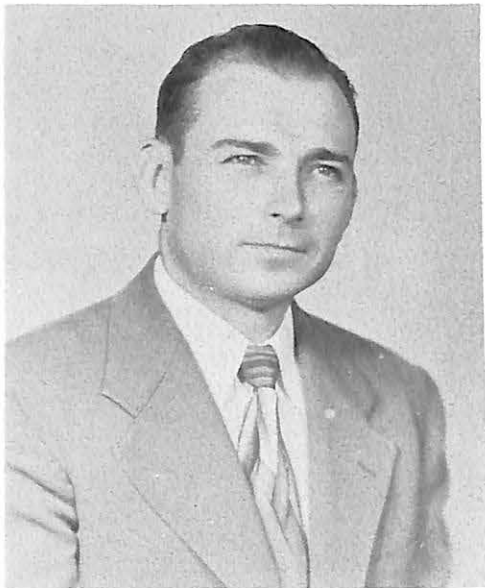

The Beacon Mission Band is made up of volunteers for home and foreign missions. It meets each Tuesday evening. Programs are designed to increase interest in and knowledge of Southern Baptist mission work. It carries on practical missionary activity from time to time.

The officers for the Beacon Mission Band are: Frenchy Landry, President; Kenneth Orso, Vice-President; Florence Whitten, Secretary; Sammie Campbell, Program Chairman; Patsy Roberts, Social Chairman; Tommy Copeland, Chorister; Sue Watson, Pianist.

AURELIAN SOCIETY

The Aurelian Literary Society was "born" in 1909 when its "mother," Clarke College, was only two years old. The first "tooth" it cut was its motto: "Knowledge, Truth and Virtue." Then it rapidly cut a full set of teeth; no dentist has ever found one decayed. More than that she has been chewing away ever since.

She is always magnifying in the fact that she can take an unharnessed, untrained, plastic youth, and develop him into such that will sway audiences with his mighty power of logic and eloquence.

During the 1950-51 school year, the Aurelian Society was led by Tommy Copeland, President; C. G. Reding, Vice-President; Jane Kelly, Secretary; Arlis Bryant, Treasurer; Louise Smith, Program Chairman; Earl Greene, Social Chairman; and Mr. A. L. McGaugh, Sponsor.

DEBATE TEAM

The debate team was under the leadership of R. F. Conklin, speech professor.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

FTA was first organized on the Clarke campus in September, 1941. In 1946 the local organization received its charter and became an active member of the National Future Teachers of America.

During the 1950-51 school year the organization progressed under the leadership of Mr. George Parker as sponsor and Jamie Tynes as president. Other officers were: Frank Morgan, vice-president; Margaret Ann Kern, secretary-treasurer; Edna Sullivan, program chairman; and Naomi Stewart, social chairman.

The aim of the organization is to help train better teachers—to teach people how to live and work together in their chosen profession.

CLARKE CALL STAFF

One feature of the present session has been the resumption of the publication of the CLARKE CALL. The staff pictured above has been asked by the college administration to be responsible for publishing the paper. They are, reading from left to right: John F. Carter, General Editor; Louie Farmer, Inspirational Editor; O. P. Moore, Public Relations Editor; Ouida White, Typist; L. M. Lanier, Business Manager; Jane Kelly, Typist; Evan Williams, Photographer; and Mack Rutledge, Associate Business Manager.

In their first issue the following statement of objectives for the paper was stated: (1) We want our friends and our constituency to know some of the interesting things that are taking place on the Clarke College campus. (2) We should like to serve as a clearing house for information concerning the Alumni and former students of Clarke. (3) We should like to be a medium through which the Public Relations office may let our friends know about the progress being made in the efforts to build a greater Clarke College. (4) We hope to give to our readers some inspirational and thought-provoking articles contributed by members of our force or our friends in the field or gleaned from other available sources.
